

For the past 48 years, Jaja Salongo Ndaula has played a very important role in offering spiritual wisdom, understanding, and awakening of the different African cultures through traditional healing and casting spells.

1. THE OLD TRADITIONAL AFRICAN HEALING WAYS

The Ancient Bantu and Bachwezi traditional healing ways are a complex system that comprises physical health and spiritual well-being. These old traditional ways have been passed on from time to time.

2. ORIGIN & CULTURE IMPORTANCE SIGNIFICANCE

The Bantu local way of healing has its roots all the way from the south of the African continent which has a deep spiritual and community effect on the African societies. Jaja Salongo Ndaula plays a crucial role in diagnosing and treating through his spiritual practices and psychic powers and casting of African Spells.

3. GENERATIONAL KNOWLEDGE & UNDERSTANDING

Traditional / Cultural healers play a tremendous role in mentoring younger generations to keep the practices preserved and pure.

This has helped teach young generations about cultural practices, presentations, offerings, sacrifices and understanding of the nature & the universe.

Often referred to in Africa (as) witchdoctors(Jaja), who believe believe in the interconnectedness of the physical body & spiritual worlds.

Ceremonies are performed to communicate between the living and the spirits with the help of African traditional practices like the full moon Spell cast & African healing practices.

By understanding & respecting the cultural & spiritual context of African Traditional healing, one can tap into a rich legacy of health & wellness practices that have been revised over time.
